NIGHT OF WORSHIP

COME! LET’S SING FOR JOY TO THE LORD!

Please join us for a Parish Night of Worship, on Friday, May 11 at 6:30pm in the parish gym. Many of you who attended the first night of worship have asked for another. Sr. Maria Caeli and Gabby, along with singer/songwriter Aubrey Quintero, from Charlotte, NC will join Tony D’Angelo on lead guitar, Rod Gray on keys, and Olivia Holmberg on drums.

A free will offering will be taken to help Olivia, a high school student who works two jobs and plays drums for her school and church. She hopes to attend a camp for Christian musicians in Nashville, with Grammy award winner, Toby Mac this summer. We hope that you will be able to join us as we gather together to praise the Lord!
On May 8, all the members of the Dominican Family celebrate the patronage of Blessed Virgin Mary over the entire Order. Blessed Cecilia who knew St. Dominic very well recounts the beautiful story that is at the root of this celebration:

“[St. Dominic] was rapt in spirit before God and saw Our Lord and the Blessed Virgin sitting at His right. As Blessed Dominic looked around, he could see religious of all the orders but his own around the throne of God, so that he began to weep bitterly and stood far away, not daring to approach the Lord and His mother. Then Our Lady motioned for him to come near. But he would not dare, until Our Lord Himself also called him. Then Blessed Dominic cast himself before them weeping bitterly. But Our Lord told him to rise, and when he did, Our Lord asked him, ‘Why are you weeping so?’ He answered, ‘I am weeping because I see all the other orders here but no sign of my own. ’ And the Lord said to him, ‘Do you want to see your Order?’ and he answered, ‘Yes, Lord.’ Then Our Lord, putting his hand upon the shoulders of the Blessed Virgin, said to Blessed Dominic, ‘I have entrusted your Order to my Mother.’ Then he asked him again, ‘Do you still wish to see your Order?’ and again he answered ‘Yes, Lord.’ Then the Blessed Virgin opened the cape which covered her and spread it out before Blessed, Dominic, to whom it seemed vast enough to cover the entire heaven and, under it, he saw a large multitude of the brethren. Then prostrating himself, Blessed Dominic gave thanks to God and to Blessed Mary His Mother.”
