ST. DOMINIC & THE ORDER OF PREACHERS

Dominic’s mother dreamt that a dog leapt from her womb carrying a flaming torch in its mouth, and “seemed to set the earth on fire.” Later Dominic would found an order known as Dominicans. Dominicanus in Latin is a play on words interpreted as Domini canis: “Dog of the Lord.”

Dominic encountered the Albigensian heresy that taught all matter is evil, so the body is evil and if the body is evil, then Christ was only divine, not human. When he saw the spiritual impact Albigensianism caused, Dominic dreamed of a new religious order combining contemplative consecration and apostolic ministry. Dominic took traditional elements in the Church—the apostolic life, community life, the discipline of monastic orders, liturgical prayer sung in community, preaching and poverty and created the Order of Preachers. Previously preaching was the role of bishops only.

Saint Dominic rarely ate anything but bread and soup; if he drank wine it was mostly water. He slept on the floor as a penance.

Saint Dominic and the Rosary

The spread of the Rosary is attributed to the preaching of Dominic. At one point Dominic became discouraged at the progress of his mission to rout out heresy. He received a vision from Our Lady who showed him a wreath of roses, representing the rosary. She told him to say the rosary daily, teach it to all who would listen and that in time the true faith would win out.

Saint Dominic and Saint Francis

Legend says that Dominic received a vision of a beggar, who like Dominic would do great things for the Faith. Dominic met the beggar the next day. He embraced him and said, “You are my companion and must walk with me. If we hold together, no earthly power can withstand us.” The beggar was Saint Francis of Assisi. Both had a special mission to go out into the world and save it.

This meeting of two founders of two great orders is still commemorated twice a year, when on their respective feast days, the brothers of both orders sing Mass together and afterwards sit at the same table. Today in Saint Peter’s Basilica, giant statues of Saints Francis and Dominic flank both sides of the Chair of Saint Peter.

Visions of Saint Dominic

Once while praying in Rome, Saint Dominic saw a vision. The Apostle Peter handed him a staff and the Apostle Paul handed him a book. Together, they told him, “Go and preach, because you have been chosen by God for this work.” From then on, Saint Dominic was often seen on the road carrying a walking stick and the Epistles of Saint Paul. He also carried the Gospel of Saint Matthew and could recite these Scriptures by heart.

Saint Dominic had other visions of Our Lady. Once he saw Her in the dormitory sprinkling the friars with holy water as they slept. Today it is still customary for the prior or prioress in every Dominican convent to sprinkle the community at Compline during the Salve Regina.
