PRAYING FOR PRIESTS:
Eternal Father, remind your priests he is not a priest for himself, his work, his repose, his time, his strength, his very life no longer belongs to himself; all is given, all belongs to God and souls. We entrust your priests to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Come Pray for Priests and Vocations to the Priesthood!
This “Holy Spouses” group is beginning in order to support marriages, especially focusing on connecting spouses to each other, other couples, and to Christ.

Each meeting we will be focusing on a topic and skill important to maintaining marriages as well as deepening and strengthening new and old relationships with Christ and each other. Light hors d’oeuvres and child care will be provided!

January’s meeting will include a talk by Sister Maria Caeli on temperaments and how they impact our relationship with our spouse. There will be a quiz to find out your temperament and time for socializing with other couples. We hope to see you there!

Prayer for Epiphany:

Lord, in this Epiphany,
I join with the Three Wise Men of the East to offer you gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh.

With the gold,
I bless your divinity, Eternal Father, for there is no other God like you, immense in kindness and generous in mercy.

With the frankincense,
I send my prayer to you, I search for you in the depths of my soul and I celebrate your presence among us.

With the myrrh,
I give thanks for the sacrifice and suffering that life brings me, for without them, I could not recognize your healing presence.

May my gifts please you.
Amen.

Our students have been working hard raising money to help the Diocese of Sacramento support their mission to provide education to those affected by the Camp Fire at no cost to the families for the remaining academic year.

Pictured above is the first grade class standing by their fundraiser gauge. They set a goal to raise $100 which they have well exceeded.

Total funds raised by the school for the Archdiocese of Sacramento Camp Fire fundraiser was $721.90!
Our Poster winners for Patience (December’s Virtue of the Month) are:

Essay Winner:
Lynn Marie Tabone from Mrs. O’Connor’s 6th grade class

“Patience, patience,” Mother said,
“Hold your horses,” was Father’s reply,
I should have listened, I should have waited,
but of opening presents, patience I hated.

I woke up at dawn to open my gifts,
but Mom caught me and sternly said “No.”
now they wake me too early,
and Dad says “It’s time to go.”

“Why do I have to go to Mass,
when I could be opening presents?”
I whined and complained all the way there,
but all I got is “Patience.”

In Mass, no attention I pay,
no respect I show, ‘cause I don’t care,
I just want to go back home,
and open my presents and play.

The car ride home, I wail and beg,
I scream and cry, “Oh, my head!
Maybe we should go back to bed;
I’m getting sick of this.” Ma said

So now I’m waiting, sitting hoarsely, while my Mum takes a nap, and Da watches me closely,
if I’d waited, by no I would have my presents,
perhaps I should have had patience.
